

Vetter Development Service Chicago

Supporting your clinical success

Our premium manufacturing and clinical supply site near Chicago, Illinois, has the people, processes, and technology to serve pharma and biotech companies of every size with customizable solutions for drug compounds in any stage from Preclinical Testing to Phase II and beyond. As a strategic partner with a global network of excellence, we provide proven drug delivery systems specifically designed for the clinical needs and timelines of your complex compound.

Proven delivery systems to optimize your development approach

Our approach: Flexible, fast and efficient

- Scalable production
- Development streamlined by
 - Disposable use to save time and increase efficiency of production
 - Analytical services and quality assurance testing aligned with regional and international guidelines
 - Clinical trial drug manufactured and tested to US and European standards
- Facility and processes designed to maximize production yield with provided API

Fully automated vial filler

Ask for our references

- 50+ products with market approval
- 50+ substances in clinical trial
- Proven, seamless transfer from clinical to Vetter commercial manufacturing

Cutting-edge lyophilization technology

VDS Chicago is a production site of Vetter, a leading contract development and manufacturing organization (CDMO) with more than 35 years of experience in aseptic filling and packaging, headquartered in Ravensburg, Germany. Vetter supports the entire drug production life cycle from development to fill and logistic services, accelerating our customers' ability to bring new drugs to market.

